

AMSO History

1990 - 1 JAN: Established Army Model Improvement & Study Management Agency (MISMA)

- Consolidated the the Study Program Management Agency and the Army Model Improvement Program Office (located at Ft. Leavenworth)

- Purpose: manage the Army model and simulation development; strengthen the coordination between the studies and analyses and training development

1996 - 15 FEB: Established the Army Model and Simulation Office (AMSO)

- IAW CSA guidance, HQ DA established AMSO as an element of DCSOPS within training, test and

- DCSOPS validation, and joint agency management

- Purpose: monitors and coordinates M&S activities across all domains as Army focal point;

2000 - 18 AUG: The Army Simulation Executive Council (AMSEC) promulgates M&S policy and standards.

assumed the proponency for the "Planning Guidelines for SMART" and "Under the executive agency of the Army Model and Simulation Office (AMSO), the Guidelines will be maintained as a living document."

- 13 SEP. Effective date of transfer of proponency of FA57 Simulation Operations and Personnel Proponent Office to AMSO.